In the comic strip, Calvin, the boy,

- (A) tried to make up excuses for what he had done wrong.
- (B) believed there were aliens that wanted to snatch him and the tiger.
- (C) assured the tiger helped him break the faucet with his father's tools.
- (D) convinced his father that the faucet suddenly broke by itself.
- (E) was pleased because his father did not believe his explanations.

RESOLUÇÃO

ALTERNATIVA: A

Na tirinha, Calvin inventa desculpas absurdas para o problema com a torneira, tentando convencer o pai de que não foi culpa dele. O foco é mostrar o menino tentando justificar-se com histórias fantasiosas, portanto a correta é (A) tried to make up excuses for what he had done wrong.
